MANDAMUS
PROCEEDINGS

Before Judge Hanbery in Regard To Party Affiliation.

160 VOTERS ARE IN PETITION

Strict Observance Of Election Laws Will Disfranchise
Many.

The filing of a petition to Circuit Judge Hanbery, Tuesday afternoon by J. W. Robertson and W. W. Morris for the issuance of a writ of mandamus requiring County Clerk Stowe to correct the registration books used in the registration last October and supplemental registrations aroused considerable interest when the Judge took up the case yesterday morning. The petitioners were represented by County Attorney Duffy and Judge Cook represented Mr.
Stowe. The suit is altogether a friendly one and the rights of about 160 legal voters of the city are involved.

The petitioners claim that at the regular registration and supplementary registrations they were not asked as to their party affiliation, which was the duty of the judges of the regular registration and the duty of the County Clerk at the supplementary registration, and their party affiliation was not recorded. On account of this they are barred by law from voting in the primary next Saturday. They seek to have the books of both registrations corrected by the County Clerk, but the power of Mr. Stowe to correct the mistakes of others was questioned.

There were several lawyers present and the election laws were thoroughly digested with considerable variance as to construction.

Judge Hanbery and the attorneys talked the matter over for an hour when the Judge said that he would consider the matter and hear the parties again to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

He said that he wanted to give the voters of all the parties a fair showing, and asked the attorneys to file an amended petition by Friday and in the petition to include the affidavits of the 160 voters whose names were left out of the first petition.

Somehow it is believed that every registered voter will be allowed to vote whether his affiliation was recorded or not. This must not be taken as conclusive, however. The court will make no mistake when he renders his decision.

FALSE ALARM

Fire Department Called To East Seventh Yesterday.

An alarm was turned in yesterday morning at 8:15 from the home of R. B. Conway, on East Seventh street beyond the dormitory of McLean College. The department answered promptly but found nothing more than the soot in the flue of the kitchen burning out. Mrs. Conway apologized to the firemen for calling them out. As sparks from the flue were dropping to the floor Mrs. Conway had good reason for being alarmed.
The firemen told Mrs. Conway that she did exactly right and not to fail to do so again under similar circumstances.

BOAT PARTY

Miss Wood and Brother Entertained Friends at Edgewater Park.

Edgewater Park is growing in popularity as a pleasure resort for young people. A most enjoyable evening was spent there last Tuesday by a score of the friends of Miss Rosebud Wood and her brother, H.
B. Wood. Some of the guests came over from Princeton on the I. C. train and the completed party went to Edgewater Park. After partaking of an excellent lunch prepared by Miss Wood, the pleasure seekers took a boat ride up the river and all of them had a royal time. The ladies present were: Misses Berta Baker, Beth Guest, Lida Kuykendall, Connie Powerly, Margaret Allen, Katie Cash, Eudora Lester and Messrs.
Louis Barnes, Rufus Arnold and H.
B. Wood.

Later in the evening the merry party drove to "Montaire," the beautiful home of Mr. J. B. Wood, about 6 miles from the city on the Newstead pike, where they remained for the night. Yesterday morning, under the chaperonage of Mrs. Davis, of Princeton, they drove to the city and took a train for Mammoth Cave.
They will return tonight and will spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wood.

CRUSHED BY
HEAVY WAGON

J. W. Pendleton Fell Under Wheels After
Jumping.

INJURIES ARE VERY SERIOUS.

Physician, After Examination, Fears Injuries May
Be Fatal.

Information reached here early yesterday morning of what may prove a fatal accident to Mr. J. W.
Pendleton, whose home is 10 or 11 miles from the city, on the Canton road, and about 2 1/2 miles from Julian.

Mr. Pendleton was on a wagon with his son, who was driving. The wagon was heavily loaded with green lumber, and on approaching a hill Mr. Pendleton jumped from the wagon while it was in motion to lighten the load for his team. When he jumped one foot struck a stone and he was thrown backward under the left hind wheel, which passed over him between the breast and stomach. His son looked behind him and saw his father lying in the road and rushed to his assistance.
Mr. Pendleton was suffering greatly, and as soon as possible Dr. Caudle was summoned.

During the night the unfortunate man was in the greatest agony which could not be relieved except by the frequent use of an anaesthetic. Owing to the great pain Mr. Pendleton was enduring, only a preliminary examination could be made, but Dr.
Caudle expressed fears that his patient cannot recover from his injuries. A fuller examination was to be made by Dr. Caudle and Dr. Rascoe yesterday.

ANALYSIS

Of Water from Church Hill
[Mineral Well.]

One gallon contains 398.4 grains of mineral matter (6.83 grains per liter), composed of calcium sulphate, magnesium sulphate, sodium sulphate and sulphate of iron (copperas).
There is a small amount of sodium chloride and distinct traces of potassium and lithium sulphates, also traces strontium and silica.

This is a rather strong chalybeate water and should have medicinal value.

A WAR OF VENGEANCE.

Whole Villages Are Turned Into Human Slaughter Houses.

Constantinople, July 30.—Trustworthy reports of appalling mas-acres and devastation by Turkish irregular troops come from districts in Thrace, which the Turks are re-occupying. The country about Mal-gara, northeast of Gallipoli, according to reports, has been converted into a human slaughter-house. Bulgarians pillaged and burned Moslem villages and massacred their inhabitants, and now the Turks are wreaking dreadful vengeance on the Christian villages which the Bulgarians spared.
